“ John was a great guy! When my dad started working at longhorn here in Lancaster my parents only had one car and John would pickup and or drop my dad off from work. They were friends even after my dad Ramiro was no longer working there. We continued to see John around town he and my dad would chat. He would let us know when he was going to the store to get “Mama” (his wife) what she wanted when we would see him at the store.. so sweet. ☐
