“ Jo Lyn was very special to me, my wife and our family. She looked out for my mom, they were roommates for several months. My mom passed away December 2012. We visited her every few weeks or at least every month after that. We miss her very much and Love her kind warm, strong willed spirit. My mom, Christine and Jo Lyn are back together again, along with many of their loved ones. Ron McKee

“ My cousin, Jo Lyn, is my hero. She is the strongest fighter I have ever met, but also the most kind and gentle person I have known. She NEVER complained about anything -(fussing at her brothers doesn't count)! She always showed up with a smile and a laugh and a positive attitude about everything. She is my inspiration for how to live a life fully. I picture her now skipping, dancing, singing, driving on the beach, and loving her heavenly life as much as she loved her earthly life. Her dear father, husband, grandparents and best friend are now in grand company!

“ I became friends with JoLyn when she was at Laurenwood. My mom was a resident there at the time. One day when I was pushing her around we hit a bump and I almost dumped her...scared me death!!! She just laughed and laughed. Her great attitude and sweet spirit had a tremendous impact on me. I send my heartfelt sympathy to her family. I am happy for the new freedom she has with her Savior.
