“ On behalf of Jo's christian family at the Beacon church of Christ in Gun Barrel City, Texas

Jo was a person who was very much in love with the Lord and His church and it showed in the way that she conducted herself. Jo was very active and regular in her support of the church. As long as her health allowed Jo was present at the services and other functions of the church. She loved everyone and loved to visit with everyone before and after services. The song director would often be ready to start and Jo would still be visiting with various members. She was a people person who very quickly endeared herself to anyone around her. Every nurse that walked into her room at the Kemp Care Center was "my favorite one." She faced a lot of sorrow in her life but it never altered her love for the Lord and his church. She was an encouragement to each one of us. We will miss her deeply, always remember her with great fondness and look forward to the time we will see her again.

"Blessed are the dead which die in the Lord from henceforth: Yea, saith the Spirit, that they may rest from their labours; and their works do follow them." (Rev.14:13)
