“ Joshua Neal Yearout- my brother and best friend- I love you more than words will ever express. You are my heart and soul and I will forever be missing a huge part of me. You have been my all and all and I will forever miss your sweet face, your beautiful eyes, your soft sweet hands, your warm kind heart, your radiant smile, and I pray to God I never forget your voice.. To those of you who missed Bub's funeral , it was amazing, fit for Josh. I could feel him there... flying on the wings of an eagle... he lived his life... he gave his all.. The most amazing brother , son , uncle, father, grandson, nephew, friend.. anyone could have on their side. I love you so much Joshua and I hope you know how much you will always mean to me. “ There are no words that will bring you comfort or peace at this time. We can only imagine the depth of your hurt. You all must know that you are branches of a very special tree, the tree of Joshua. And although the pruning hurts and needs time to heal, the tree grows stronger and more vigorous. That is the plan of the Master gardener.

“ On January 14th 1980 the light of my life was born. His heart was as pure and his smile as handsome as the morning sun. He changed lives with his love, smile and gift of life. Those of you who know him and love him as I do, I ask that you share you life in the way he did. He loved the Lord, he was fair and kind, and his memory will live strong in our hearts with his smile and his loving ways. God Bless you my son as you sit at the right hand of the Lord our God and smile down upon this Earth. Please dont let him down by being any thing other than good to one another, loving and kind and smiling! You will be missed more than words can ever express. I love you Joshua! “ Josh came into my life in the third grade and quickly became the first person with whom I had that "best friend" relationship. We did everything together. I hadn't seen Josh in years but I had the pleasure of talking to him online once or twice in the past couple years and I was always so proud of what he had accomplished in his life. I remember one day he called me after he had enlisted in the Marines. I remember thinking to myself, "That is one of the toughest guys I've ever met. I just don't have that in me to sacrifice that much of myself." He was a hero to me like he has no doubt been to many. My deepest condolences go out to his family and his beautiful children left behind. Josh was an inspiring man that shall not be forgotten. I don't know what comes after this life but I sure hope that I see him when I get there. Josh, you were one of the most influential people in my life and one of the greatest friends I've ever had to this day. I love you brother.

“ My sincere and heartfelt sympathy goes out to Josh's family. One of the world's brightest lights has been extinguished too soon. I have taught English to thousands of high school students, and I can say Josh is one student I will always remember. He was a gentle soul with a quick wit and smile—a smile that would sparkle in his eyes and flash on his face. He was one of the most caring, respectful, and promising young men I've ever known, and in his short life, he dedicated his life to his family and country—exactly what I thought he would do. When “Taps” is played at his funeral, and he gets that 21 gun salute, know that everyone who had the honor and pleasure of knowing Josh feels the loss of his passing.##imported-begin##Lee Willson##imported-end##
