“Joyce was a beautiful lady, inside and out. She was gracious and kind to those of us who had the pleasure of working with her. Her first dedication was to her family and her faith. We have many memories of her warm smile and fun spirit. My sympathy and prayers are with her whole family as you celebrate her life.

“ So very saddened to learn, my mother Linda had worked with & enjoyed a friendship with Joyce years ago at Fireman's Fund Insurance. I remember her & James as the loveliest of people, can't think of a time she wasn't smiling. My deepest sympathy is with James & Ricky & Lori & their families in your loss & prayers for comfort in your sorrow. May the happy memories of the life you shared bring you comfort.

“You were always the brightest light around. Classy and kind, mothering and as sweet as they came. The short time I cared for you taught me more than you would have ever known, it was a blessing to say the least. Thank God for giving us Joyce. Please take care of her as she returns home to watch over us. Love to the family, Pam Crouse
