“ Dearest Julia,

We shall always remember you with the warmest thoughts. You were so positive. Winfred, Sue, Edwin and I always enjoyed your company and your memory of days gone by. You could remember the details and confirm Winfred's and Sue's thoughts of their youth with you and your family. I loved your gentle way of "correcting" those times if their memory was a little different.

You had such a sweet spirit and wonderful smile! If any one had something bad to say about anything, your response was always: "Is that right?" OR "Well, I'll say." OR "You don't mean it!" You just didn't add fuel to any fire where people were concerned.

Your "Ice Box Lemon Pie" was a special at every Parr Reunion and other times as well. It was always a pleasure to pick you up to go to Mt. Pleasant for those reunions as well as having you join Winfred, Sue, Edwin, and I (and Mary as long as she was able) for our family gatherings. You were the lifeline to keep us informed on the rest of the family: including aunts, uncles, cousins, etc. You always had the details on family health. Thank you so very much for that! You always wanted to know how our families were doing, too!

You are and will be greatly missed by everyone who knew and loved you...until we meet again. I picture you having great laughs with your dear mom and dad, Wesley, Viva Marie, Arvel and Myra Nell, Hersh, H.C., Delton, Owen, and your dear twin, Lucy Dell.

Love to always PLUS one day more!

Your cousin, Gayle

“ Back in the 60's mother and dad (Geneva and Henry Langford plus myself and I think my Sister Janelle and husband Garland Fielding visited Gladys Parr in East Texas. Mother told about when Gladys stayed with us before the Peters reunion at Uncle Allen's. It had been a super dry year and we had just moved into a new home that Dad had built (1952 or 1953) - well they discuss the no rain situation and Gladys told mother it could still rain - it did to the tune of over 10 inches and Uncle Allen lost many of his birds. His bird farm was never the same after that. Mother's mother (Mollie) was a sister of Gladys.
