“Kaden was so full of life. He had a mind of his own and was not afraid to let anyone know what was on his mind. His opinion mattered, and if he thought you didn't want to hear it, he spoke louder. His sense of humor was incredible. He could make me laugh whenever he wanted to. He was special and I could never even begin to tell anyone about how wonderful his sense of humor was. He had impeccable timing, "Excuse me." We never knew what he was going to say. He feared nothing. If he loved you, he let you know. He let me know that he loved me and I feel fortunate to have been one of his loved ones. He adored his parents and his sisters. Everyone who truly knew Kaden was touched by him. Thank you for the years you were with us. You came in this world fast and left the same way. It is important to me that you know the joy you added to my life. I miss you, and know that I will see you again some day. You made our lives sweeter when you were around. Thank you for the many wonderful memories! You brought laughter and joy to our lives. PaPaw and I miss you!

“ Kaden, I will always remember your contagious smile and how much you loved suckers, stickers, and rolling your cars down the hall at the office. Alynsia, you and your family are in my prayers. My heart is hurting along with yours. I'm so sorry I can't be there but I will be thinking of you!
May the Lord give you comfort.

Love and hugs,

“ I keep thinking about the last time I saw you.... you always played hard to get with me when I tried to give you a hug, but on this day you ran up and hugged me before I knew what was going on....lol
Then you had to take me to show me your mommies new bow....then I had to see yours.
I was looking foward to seeing you and all of the other boys hanging out in the woods hunting with us, but I guess Jesus just needed you more....."Hey Kaden what does a crow sound like".....love you little man...!
