“ Linda you were too young to go on. I'm a better person knowing you. I met you at the Hutchins Post Office and thought you were a great mama. Even tho you were struggling you stayed in there till you could do better. My condolences to your family. They truly loved you and so did a lot of people.

“ I met linda in school.on 3rd grade in Dallas Her family and mine went to church together for many years....we grew up together
We were best friends for many years...lost touch after moving in different directions
She continued to be my best friend in my heart...I miss you linda
