“ My sincere condolences to Lois' family. I worked (and partied!) with Lois at the WSJ back in the '80s and have very fond memories of her dry wit and intelligence.##imported-begin##Teresa Kokojan##imported-end##

“ Dear Jason and Sue: I am so very sorry to learn of the passing of your beloved Mom and Sister. My heart is grieving for you and with you in this devastating loss in your life. Please know my thoughts and my prayers are with you both and your family...I pray God will continue to sustain you with His Love, Comfort, Peace, and Strength as you walk this most difficult journey adjusting to the absence of your Mom and Sister in your lives. Just remember that she is only "a thought" away; and even though she will not be with you physically, she will always be with you in every other way--emotionally and spiritually! I am thinking of you in a special way during this sorrowful time. With All My Love....

“ Dear Jason, I read your heartfelt tribute to your mother and I know your heart aches from losing her. I just want you to know that you do not go on without her, you go on for her as she goes on with you. She is with you always, heart and soul. God bless you and your family.##imported-begin##Paula Davis##imported-end##

“ To the most wonderful person,lady,woman and most of all my mother.

In My Pocket I have memories . They rattle among the change. My memories of you are treasures I carry wherever I go. They are stored in bits and pieces, parts of a beautiful whole. They give me comfort when I think I am alone. Yes, I have memories in my pocket, like so much other stuff I keep there. But of all the treasures I have, it's the memories of you that are the most memorable.

My sweet,sweet mother. I can't believe you are gone. You are my best friend,my soul mate,my everything and most important of all my Mother. What I wouldn't give to just hug you one more time, kiss you one more time, tell you I love you one more time. Please help me try and go on with out you. I can only do it if you help me. I'm all alone now and my heart is truly broken into. All I wanted to do was take care of you forever and ever, but that has been taken away. As I sit here, I am trying to think what my purpose is for now that you were taken from me so sudden and with no warning. Thank you so much for being my mom. My life has changed and my bright bundle of sunshine has forever been taken from me. My heart and soul ache so much that it is hurting me. Momma, I need you now. I don't know what to do from minute to minute knowing you are not here with me. I really need you to show me a sign that you can hear my cries and pleads for you to let me know you are still with me. I can't go on like this. It hurts too bad knowing you are gone. I hope you know how much I love and adore you in all your many splenders. Until then, sleep with the Angels and know you are always and forever in my heart and soul. I will see you Monday evening. Momma, I LOVE YOU FOREVER AND ALWAYS, your baby boy,
