

Lola Mosley

January 2, 1938 - May 25, 2012

Lola Burch Harrison Mosley was born on January 2, 1938, to Jimmy Elton Harrison and Thelma Kathleen Matlock in Dallas, Texas. Raised in south Dallas, Lola married Claude Mosley of Columbia, TN. They soon moved to Lancaster, Texas and established their home. Lola worked for the local Dairy Queen for several years and became a fixture in the community. She later worked as an office manager for Modern Talking Pictures until her retirement. Lola, or Nana, as she was lovingly called, is survived by her children: Brenda Kay Witherspoon of Red Oak, TX and husband James Witherspoon, Claude Dewayne Mosley of Richardson, TX and partner Michael Brown, Darrell Glen Mosley of Oak Leaf, TX and wife Danette Meals Mosley, and Misty Dawn Perkins of De Soto, TX and her partner Paul Barrett. Nana also is survived by her grandchildren: Christopher Loren Britton of Dallas, TX and wife Elizabeth Perry Britton, Nicholas Arden Britton of Red Oak, TX and partner Amber Sprabary, Jacob Lee Mosley of Dallas, TX and fiancée Jo Cayme, Jared Ryan Mosley of Waxahachie, TX and wife Laura Gonzalez Mosley, Brianna Holland Mosley of Lancaster, TX, Amy Lyn Mosley Scott of Lubbock, TX and husband Ryan Scott, Ryan David Mosley of Oak Leaf, TX, Holly Denise Perkins of Oak Leaf, TX, and Evan Matthew Brown of Plano, TX. Nana also was thrilled to have four great-grandchildren: Shelby Suade Britton, Braydyn Lee Britton, Gabriella Paige Mosley and Cade Daniel Britton. Lola is also survived by a host of other extended family and friends. She loved sewing, reading, doing arts and crafts and spending time with her family. Lola was an integral part of the Red Hat Ladies Society - Jewels of the South. Her Red Hat sisters kept her young and her life exciting. She is preceded in death by her parents, her husband, her brother Louis Scott Harrison and her sister Jimileen Harrison. Though she insisted everyone call her Nana, her grandson commented that now she can be called "daughter" for the first time in a long time as she enters her Heavenly home.

“ I'm remembering when Scotty would get the kids and I and we would head out to Lola's to spend the day. Lola and I would talk and visit while the kids played and played. Even though it's been years, the fond memories still remain and they are so vivid, like I can almost go back in time. We really loved her dearly. She was one of a kind and will be greatly missed.##imported-begin##Jayne Talbert Harrison##imported-end##

“ It's Saturday morning, May 26, 2012. Phil and I are in Texarkana, AR, headed for Pine Bluff, AR. We had just finished breakfast and since I haven't been able to use my new AIM mobile application, I decided to try it again. I clicked on AIM, the message at the bottom says, Do you want to start a chat? I click it and a message pops up. I can't believe what I see...a message from Thursday, 5/24/12 at 10:27pm says:

Hi, Sunny. Guess you are a night owl too. Keep my son in line...Lola Harrison Mosley

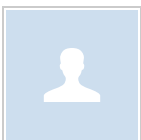

I showed the message to Phil and told him this really freaked me to get her message the morning after she passed away. She and I have never used AIM to talk before, just Facebook occasionally. Phil & I had met her at Dewayne's Christmas party a couple of years ago, she was quite a character, friendly, full of stories. A wonderful Mother, fun loving, she enjoyed family and friends. She'll be very missed, but I don't think there's any way Dewayne can be kept in line but it was sweet of her to think I or anyone could.##imported-begin##Sunny Oliver##imported-end##

“ Today, we said goodbye to THE most influential person in my life – my supporter, my champion, my friend, my Mother, Lola Harrison Mosley. She was the most kind-hearted, compassionate person I have ever known. She taught me so much about how folks should treat one another. She loved unconditionally. She gave of herself unselfishly. She was ALWAYS there for us through it all. I know her crown is full of jewels because of the life she lived. May we all hope to do as well. We are confident of her place in Glory today with my Dad and her Heavenly Father. My son remarked that Nana is a true guardian angel now. Yes, I said Nana. She loved to be called Nana. As I stood there today holding on to her hand, I wondered aloud if she would want God to call her Nana now. But my son said, “No. For the first time in a long time she can finally be called “daughter” once again.” Thank you, Mother for your faithful witness to our entire family. I find peace and rest in the words of this song: “Our prayers have all been answered. I’ve finally arrived. The healing that had been delayed has now been realized. No one’s in a hurry. There’s no schedule to keep. We’re all enjoying Jesus – just sitting at His feet. If you could see me now, I’m walking streets of gold. If you could see me now, I’m standing tall and whole. If you could see me now, you’d know I’ve seen His face. If you could see me now, you’d know the pain’s erased. You wouldn’t want me to ever leave this perfect place. If you could only see me now.” Amen! Can everybody just say LOVE! I love you, Mother.##imported-begin##Dewayne Mosley, son##imported-end##
