“ Harold and Joyce were my clients, at first, then ,became family. Joyce came on her lunch time, on Fridays, to get her hair done. Harold packed a lunch for her every day, but on Fridays... he made one for me too. He was quite the guy... everyone's favorite. He will be missed. Rick and Ketha Brashear

“ My heart goes out to Sharold and the whole family, with the loss of their sweet dad. He and his sweet wife, Joyce, were customers at our jewelry store years ago, but more than customers, we considered them friends. My husband and I always enjoyed seeing them come through the doors, as their visits were full of sharing stories and laughs. I would also see Harold strolling the aisles of the grocery store picking up all sorts of things to cook.....and would tell him he could do my shopping any time if he loved it that much. It would always get a grin from him. All good memories of a very special man. God bless you all.

“ He came by the office some months ago, and he looked and sounded great, so my last memory of Harold is a good one. I know he is happy to be reunited with Joyce.

To all of his family I want you to know how sorry I am and that you're in my thoughts and prayers. Harold was a wonderful, special man; and I'm so fortunate to have known and worked with him.

“ We were neighbors for many years and shared our four girls. Harold loved cooking and could make the best chocolate chip cookies. My husband loved to eat chocolate chip cookies. Clifford would call Harold and ask for cookies and Harold never hesitated to bake up a tray of cookies. He would call Clifford back and tell him they were ready. Clifford would laugh and tell Harold to bring them over to us. Harold would come across the yard with a plate of cookies.
