“ I remember Mamie as a very loving wife and mother and very dedicated to her family whom she loved very much. I had the honor of knowing Mamie when i was a young girl. James and i went to school together at James Bowie elementary. My parents and i remained friends with the Reese family for several years. Mamie had such a loving gentle spirit and so kind to everyone. She raised 3 beautiful children in Ruth Ann, James and Larry. I have thought of them many times through the years and reflect back on the fun happy times that we all shared together and wish we could do it all over again. I miss Mamie and her family and would like to extend the most heartfelt sympathy and condolences to Ruth Ann and her family.

Thank you Jeanie. I wish that you could have seen mom tonight. We went for the viewing and she is at rest. I felt such a peace when I saw her. She was absolutely beautiful. Only God gave her a special glow because she is now in her heavenly body.
