“ My dear sweet Momma. You have been gone a month today and I miss you so much. Wish you were here so I could give you a big hug and kiss. But I know if you were here you would probably be in some bad pain and I wouldn't want that for you but I do miss and love you so much. I think of you everyday and usually cry when I do. I hope this will get easier.##imported-begin##Frances Morrison##imported-end##

“ I have to start by saying my Momma was a hard working woman. She was kind and gentle but don't make her mad. I remember several times I got my butt whipped and I'm sure I so deserved it "sometimes". I think she over reacted a few times :-), but that is just my thinking on it. My Mother was a great cook and enjoyed doing it too. She always wanted to be sure there was enough food when company came. She made the best macaroni pea salad and her ribs weren't to bad either. She could cook some good German food I have to tell you but then it was in the blood of course since she was full blooded German.

She also was pretty good at whipping out a cocktail or two but since she did that for a living she had a little experience under her belt. She made several people happy when she would shake a margarita.

She had several friends but lost her best friend Pat in Dec. 2002. She was lost for several years without her. But I know they are together again. I have to say thank you so much to Pam,DJ and Marti that picked her up by inviting her to come to the lake house on weekends and special holidays. She would talk about what a good time she had and all the good food and drinks and how much fun it was to visit them. And then there is Jon. What a guy she thought he was and loved him so much. She was always excited when he was coming to Dallas or when she was able to go to Chicago to visit him. And when he would come for New Year's Eve, that would always make her happy and she loved all the fun gifts we would exchange that evening. And to Scott and Joy a thank you for being so good to my Momma and inviting her to your home to spend the night. She'd also talk about that and enjoyed going to dinner at her favorite mexican restaurant with you both. Oh yes, and then there is Bonnie Bell. She was always excited to visit Kansas and she had a great time when she was there too. I wish everyone could have seen her face the day Bonnie Bell and Aunt Marcella walked in her room at the hospital. Wow, what a day to remember. I'm crying just reliving it as I'm telling it. Bonnie Bell always had a special place in her heart. :-).

I will always remember when Momma would come to visit and she'd be sitting outside on the patio when I got home from work I'd go outside and she would tell me how nice I looked and was always interested in how my day at work was. But most of all I'll remember while she was in the hospital the last few days, I'd walk in and she'd smile and would tell me, "You look so pretty". Just brings tears to my eyes as I'm wishing I could hear her say it again. I know she loved me more than life itself. I just hope she misses me as much as I miss her.

She also loved her only granddaughter so much and was always looking forward to going to Nacogdoches for a visit. She loved all her great-grandbabies but Parker had a special spot in her heart. Parker was Nonnie's boy.

They all loved her and will miss her too.##imported-begin##Frances Morrison##imported-end##

“ We stopped at Aunt Marcella's house on our way through Dallas. She made us the most amazing chicken fried steak dinner! We were in the kitchen cooking with her when she asked Tad to whip the mashed potatoes. He figured, " how hard could that be?". She handed him the hand mixer and bowl of piping hot potatoes. After a few minutes he told her that they looked pretty good. She just smiled and poured some cream in them as she told him to "keep going". Every time he thought they were done, she'd simply smile and say ""keep going". At least ten minutes passed and Tad was getting a little exasperated when she finally declared they were probably " good enough". Those were the best mashed potatoes ever! Aunt Marcella was an excellent cook and to this day no one can beat that chicken fried steak dinner she served us that night! We still giggle when we mash potatoes at our house as we see her face smiling as she said, "keep going!"###imported-begin##Tad and Sarah Hacker###imported-end##

“ Dear Marcy,
My life has been forever enriched by your friendship, kind and inciteful words of encouragement, and the gift that only you had for making me stop and enjoy the here and now, before, as you said, life sweeps that moment away. I only hope to one day be the same inspiration to others as you have been to me. I truly love you and everything you represented and am looking forward to sitting down with you again. That was some of the most memorable times of my life. Say hi to my Dad, I think the two of you will get along wonderfully.

Your buddy always, Ken Fitzhenry###imported-begin##Ken Fitzhenry###imported-end##

“ Aunt M as I called her. I (Sonja) met her just 2 1/2 years ago...from the start she told me to call her Aunt Marcella..I felt like I was family (I am family). She was a beautiful person with a wonderful heart..She taught me to make Knoephla soup (had never heard of it but I love it now).
My sadness is my selfishness that I will not see her or talk to her anymore. Aunt M lived a long wonderful life from the stories I was told by her, and now she in heaven watching us all...Love to all##imported-begin##Sonja Johnson & Reno Palicka##imported-end##

“ Marcie Horton was one of the nicest people I ever knew. She was my friend from the mid '70's. I talked to Marcie a month or so ago from Alaska. She told me she loved me, we laughed about some old times. I told her and I tell you Frances and Family, I am a better person for having known her. Go with God, as I know she has.
