Marcial Medina Ruiz

July 3, 1958 - May 2, 2025

It is with deep sorrow that we announce the passing of Marcial Medina Ruiz, who departed on May 2, 2025, leaving behind a legacy of love, hard work, and music. A man of great heart and generous spirit, Marcial exemplified the strength and determination of those who seek a better future for their loved ones.

He is survived by his beloved wife María Luisa Arvizu de Medina; his children Judith, Alicia, Alma, Marcus, José, Marcial Jr., María Graciela, Romina, and Elizabeth; his sons and daughter-in-law; his grandchildren and great-grandchildren; his mother Ma. Natividad Ruiz; his siblings, and an extensive family who will remember him with love.

Like many pursuing the American dream, Marcial left his native Mexico to forge a promising future in the United States. His life was marked by an unbreakable work ethic and boundless generosity, always ready to lend a hand to those in need. Blessed with an extraordinary sense of humor, Marcial had the gift of brightening any space with his witty remarks and jokes, bringing smiles and joy to everyone around him. His passion for music and his gift for singing led him to share unforgettable moments with musicians, leaving a melody in the hearts of those who knew him. His home was always a gathering point for the community, where he organized memorable volleyball tournaments that allowed him to forge lasting friendships and create a space of unity and joy for all.

The family will have viewing at their home in Lancaster from 10:30am Wednesday, May 7, 2025 to 8:00am Thursday. Funeral Mass will be at 10:00am on Thursday, May 8, 2025 at St. Francis of Assisi Catholic Church in Lancaster.

Marcial Medina Ruiz

3 de julio 1958 - 2 de mayo 2025

Con profundo pesar anunciamos el fallecimiento de Marcial Medina Ruiz, quien partió el 2 de mayo de 2025, dejando un legado de amor, trabajo y música. Hombre de gran corazón y espíritu generoso, Marcial ejemplificó la fortaleza y determinación de quienes buscan un mejor futuro para sus seres queridos.

Le sobreviven su amada esposa María Luisa Arvizu de Medina; sus hijos Judith, Alicia, Alma, Marcus, José, Marcial Jr., María Graciela, Romina y Elizabeth; sus yernos y nuera; sus nietos y bisnietas; su madre Ma. Natividad Ruiz; sus hermanos, y una extensa familia que lo recordará con amor.

Como muchos que persiguen el sueño americano, Marcial dejó su México natal para forjar un futuro prometedor en Estados Unidos. Su vida estuvo marcada por una inquebrantable ética de trabajo y una generosidad sin límites, siempre dispuesto a tender una mano a quien lo necesitara. Dotado de un extraordinario sentido del humor, Marcial tenía el don de iluminar cualquier espacio con sus ocurrencias y bromas, llevando sonrisas y alegría a todos los que lo rodeaban. Su pasión por la música y su don para el canto lo llevaron a compartir momentos inolvidables con músicos, dejando una melodía en los corazones de quienes lo conocieron. Su casa siempre fue un punto de encuentro para la comunidad, donde organizaba memorables torneos de voleibol que le permitieron forjar amistades duraderas y crear un espacio de unión y alegría para todos.
