“Dad, you were truly one of a kind. No one can compare to you and no one ever will. Ours was a special bond. Even though I always thought our personalities were day and night from each other, I see so much of you in me. A father's love is one that's comforting and reassuring. I felt protected by you. I felt understood by you. Yes, you got on my nerves. Yes, I thought you were corny. Yes, I thought you were mean. Let's be real; that's natural between a father and daughter. However, you made me laugh. You made me think and sort out my feelings. You pushed me to be confident. You inspired me and believed in my dreams. My unconditional love for you runs deeper than words. I am honored to carry on your name and legacy and blessed to have had you as my father.

“ Ms. Helen and Family,

Words cannot express our sadness. May the comfort of God help you through this difficult time. Although no words can really help to ease the loss you bear, just know that you are very close in every thought and prayer.
