“ Prayers and strength to Mark’s family and friends. His life was taken much too soon. He fought his illness with great determination, as he did with everything in his life. Mark and I met in 7th grade advisory at T.W. Browne Jr. High. We were close friends for years until geographical differences sent us on our separate ways. Myself, as well as Mark’s other friends, have great memories of sports, working out, hanging out at the pool, cruising around in his white Monte Carlo and his Olds 442. Maybe we went clubbing (do they call it that anymore?) a time or two. Disco was in its heyday, but that gave way to 80’s music before you knew it. Top 40 and Rock were cranked up too. I was able to see Mark a couple of times in the last two years, and I am thankful for those times, as well as the past. You will be missed by many. Rest in Peace my friend!

“ Cheryl, Mike, Ron, Ginger, Preston, Paige, Lexi, and all of Mark's family, I want you all to know how very sorry I am for your loss. Mark and I first met when we were 10 years old, playing BBI baseball for the Drillers at Kiest Park, and Little league football for The Mustangs at Red Bird park. When we got to High School, we became the best of friends, some what inseparable, and I spent more time at the Crepe Myrtle Circle dinner table than I did at my own at home. I'm sure Maurice and Maribell were glad to see me go off to college, to give some relief to their grocery bill. I loved them like my own parents. Mark and I drove a million miles, on the streets of Oak Cliff, chasing girls, going to parties, clubs like "after the Gold Rush, and the #3 Lift", but on the grander scale, chasing our dreams. After college, our lives went separate ways, but in these past few years, we re-connected, and the bond of our friendship continued. I am so proud of Mark, and his courageous battle. Mark also reconnected with Christ, and his bond was never stronger. In the past year or so, we reminisced about our youth, sports, old girlfriends, and waterskiing till the sun went down, and how we couldn't wait to do it all over again. "Drink a Beer" by Country artist Luke Bryan reads "So long My Friend, until we meet again, I'll remember you, and all the times, that we used to, Sit right here, on the edge of this peer, and watch the sunset disappear, and Drink A Beer" When we meet again, we'll do just that. I Love you Brother, Rest in Peace. Randy Barnes “ True confessions, I, and more than a few others, looked up to Mark during our days at Dallas J.F. Kimball HS....still do. His white with orange 442 was "boss". A few years later, I got my dream car...Cowboys blue over silver. Pretty sure local authorities knew exactly where our cars were at all times!! Wonderful to see Mark's children growin' up as cool as their dad! I know how very proud he is of all y'all. Wish Mark could use an extra PGA ticket my friend gave me late yesterday for today's practice round at Quail Hollow. As nice as that would be, nothing compares to what Mark has now. Eternity in the presence of Jesus! I know Mark wants all our friends to join us there one glad day. Prayers for God's peace that passes all understanding and the comfort only He can give.

“ My sincere condolences to Mark's family. I knew Mark in high school and really only knew him through facebook after that. I was so inspired by Mark's strength and witness as he battled this ugly disease. He gave God all the glory through his suffering and made every attempt to live his life to the fullest. I hope his family can find comfort knowing he is waiting for them in heaven and in the many memories he created while he was here. His life was taken much too soon, but I believe he used the time he had to make a difference to many.

“ I knew Mark from Jr. High and beyond. I have so many memories I will treasure forever. I personally never once heard him complain about his condition, frustration or the pain he had to have been experiencing. Mark was such an inspiration to all who knew him! He never ceased to amaze me with his continued strength and courage. To his beautiful family, and the many friends who loved him, please know you are all in my prayers. He will be deeply missed. Hopefully, comfort can be found in knowing he's now 'home' - no more pain - FLY HIGH MY FRIEND. Sending peace and gentle arms around you all during this difficult time.
much love to all ~

“ It was such a privilege to reconnect with Mark after all these years after being neighbors and going from elementary through high school with him. His heart was huge and he had a fighting spirit that most could never imagine. Prayers for his family, and for his children as they carry on his legacy. ❤️
