

Martha Jo Bredemeyer

May 1, 1931 - September 14, 2019

Martha Jo Bredemeyer of Lancaster, Texas was born May 1, 1931 in Bangs, TX to Charley W. and Myrtle Ann (Sparks) Wade. She passed away September 14, 2019 in Waxahachie, TX.

Martha Jo loved life! She was very active in her church, First United Methodist Church of Lancaster, where she taught Sunday School for decades. She was also a huge supporter of the Lancaster Lion's Club where her beloved husband, Talmadge, was a past president. Martha Jo also loved the outdoors. Anything that involved hunting and fishing and camping was right up her alley. Dallas sports was another love of hers. If the Cowboys, the Mavericks, SMU Mustangs, UNT Mean Green, and especially the Texas Rangers were playing, she didn't miss it. Martha Jo rarely missed watching the Rangers on TV and sometimes got to go in person. She also loved being a sports mom. Martha Jo took Tam to every sporting event he was ever involved in from the very beginning.

Martha Jo was a teacher. She taught Home Economics for years with 10 of them being in Lancaster. She loved anything regarding sewing, quilting, cooking, and baking. And especially lately, her book club was one of her favorite groups that helped keep her going.

She was preceded in death by her husband, Talmadge; her parents; her sisters, Frances Burns and Jean Miller; and her brother, Charley Sparks.

Martha Jo is survived by her son, Tam Eugene Bredemeyer and many beloved nieces and nephews.

The family will receive friends from 6:00pm to 8:00pm on Thursday, September 19, 2019 at Byrum Funeral Home. Funeral Service will be at 11:00am, Friday, September 20, 2019 at First United Methodist Church in Lancaster.

“ Martha Jo and I were neighbors and fellow teachers at LHS, We also shared the very difficult task of raising to super bright boys who loved getting into mischief. Lots of fun and lots of worries, but so many memories. Even tho I'm now almost 2000 miles away I still think of all of you and you are in my prayers Tam. ”

“ Well me and my family are praying for you Tam. You mother and father were two of the sweetest and kindest people on God’s green earth. Your mom was one of the finest ladies that I have ever meet. May the Lord be with you and care for you as only he can. When I saw your mom when we were in church she was always sweet ,kind and a good Christian role model. God Bless her sweet memory!!!

“ I am very very sorry for your loss, Tam. Your Mom was such a special person and I know you have many sweet memories of her to hold in your heart. She is now finally reunited with your Dad which is surely a comfort. My thoughts are with you.

“ Oh my heart breaks to read this. Mrs. Bredemeyer was my first Sunday school teacher and continued over the years to be a kind, loving mentor with a big hug and smile every time I saw her. I think the entire town of Lancaster will miss her. I know I will.

“ I remember Martha Jo as being a part of our church family when I lived in Texas. She was so kind and sweet and a good friend of my mother, a wonderful support. Seeming to be shy, she did have quite a sense of humor, and a dear laugh. This saddens me. I do love the photo of Martha here. My thoughts are with you..pleasant journeys, Martha Jo.
