

Martha Jane Reeves

November 14, 1924 - August 1, 2011

Martha "Marty" Jane Reeves was born in Salineville, Ohio on November 14, 1924 to Walter and Hazel Hart. She graduated high school in 1942 and went on to work in civil services at Wright Field in Dayton, Ohio. Marty met the love of her life in April 1946 - Lt. Col Leonard Randolph Reeves while working at Wright Field. The two were married on December 7, 1946. Leonard R. Reeves wanted to get married on Pearl Harbor Day so he would not forget their anniversary date. Marty and Randolph had four kids; Randeem Dees, Scott Reeves, Mark Reeves, and Patricia Reeves. They have 8 grandchildren; Jay Dees, Martha Baur, Jaime Renfro, Brieanne Osborne, Melissa Ingram, Camille Ingram, Aaron Squaires, and Patrick Squaires. They also have 8 great grandchildren; Cheyenne Louthan, Anna Scott Baur, Jane Baur, Bennett Baur, Tori Osborne, Jack Osborne, Archie Dees, and Maggie Dees.

In lieu of flowers, a book may be purchased in Marty's name at Lancaster Veterans Memorial Library, or donations may be made to First Presbyterian Church of Lancaster, TX or Dallas TX Chapter of Alzheimers.

“ Marty was the best mother-in-law when I was married to Scott. She cooked so many meals for me after a hard day at work and would always want to pick up Jaime and Brie from the babysitter. I know Scott was waiting with his arms wide opened and a BIG Smile on his face! I Love You Both##imported-begin##Becky O'Neal##imported-end##
