“ I got to know Martha thru her friendship with my Mom, Betty Quinn. They sat together in church and often went to lunch together after church and throughout the week. Martha was positive and cheerful and was just a pleasure to be with. She was very generous with her time in serving Mom and others, such as taking them to doctor appointments, and she was always gracious in extending the kindness of God to others. It was a privilege to know her and she will be so very much missed.

“ Ms. Reynolds was a sweet smile when we first arrived on Rutgers. She always had a morning wave. I am going to miss that most of all.

“ Aunt Martha was one of my favorite Aunts. I am sad to hear that she passed, but what great memories have flooded my mind, as I am sure it has been with many. She always let me know she loved me. She always referred to me as Diana Lynn. The first time my children heard it they had no idea what she was saying because it always came out more like Dianalynn all one word, and with her southern accent, it was long and drawn out. It brings me much pleasure and peace knowing I will see her again in heaven and it will be glorious. She will be missed by many.

“ Martha will be missed by her neighbors on Rutgers. In her latter years, she became a good friend to me. She always had a beautiful smile to share and plenty of kindness for anyone who stopped and visited with her. Her patience for allowing everyone to camp out on her yard for the fireworks show was infinite. She never said no to anyone, and I most especially, will miss visiting with her and picking out the best firework. May God bless the family and heal the pain of her passing quickly. Remember, she is in our glorious Savior's arms now and reunited with Jack and all of the family members who God called home before her!
