“ My Dad,
Stump fishing, waterfowl hunting, cars, casinos, driving, lots of driving, doing alot of what most people consider work, but he and I share that love of just doing because it is interesting. His wild neighborhood creatures we both loved. We can reach that inner joy that is so hard to describe that you don't even want share it with folks who don't get it, they choose to photo it, write about. He and I get it without saying look at me look at me! I miss you Dad, we are not that rare but we are loved by so many! 2006 will always be a lifetime for me although it was only a few months. Geez, was there anywhere me and you ever went together that we never found some one to chat up. I was probably the one who caused you the most grief but damn if I was older or you were younger we could have done so much more. I know Madeleine really loved you and Donna now. If only I can say I lived my life as quietly as you, I will be satisfied. I love you Dad, always will.
