Mr Marvin I know you are dancing in heaven. I want to thank you for being my friend. Mr Marvin was my personal business driver to and from mostly airport between DFW and Miami for over 3 yrs. My ex husband and our dog loved him. I loved bringing him a can of cookies every week from Doible tree chocolate chip cookies. We would ride home and listen to Dr Laura Schlesinger weekly! We laughed he talked to me about his beautiful Companion and how she sang in the choir. We shared cries about loosing his wife and daughter to cancer. His son Cecil painted our home. My dog Mr Jake was blind and every time we arrived to my home from any reservation my dog loved him and was blind. He always wanted Mr Marvin to take him because he could smell Mr Marvin dogs scent and would kiss him in the face and all. I've been looking for information tried calling for a couple of years and I decide to go deeper. I want you to know family and friends he is truly missed. Outstanding customer service always always on time we acquired his services for every event and not just weekly trips to DFW. To my friend and the gentleman I called my pops. Thank you and you are truly missed sir. Kindest Regards

“ Marvin was such a blessing to our family. Dolores is our aunt. He embraced us as family and shared his gift of Limo driving when my father and Kent's father passed away. He didn't have to do that but he gifted that to us. He was a very kind sweet man. We will miss him.

“ Our prayers are for the comfort and strength for the family and loved ones of this great man, who was a wonderful neighbor for all these years we lived here in Enchanted Forest. He was so well-respected and loved by all who knew him. May God be with each of you,, as you adjust to life without him, but knowing he is having a wonderful new everlasting life with the ones who have been waiting for him!

“ My thoughts and prayers are with Dolores and Marvin's family. He was a great man. I always enjoyed listening to him play the organ on Sundays at church. I always got the best hugs from him too on Sundays! He was so kind when my husband passed away. He drove our family from church to the cemetery in his limo. I will always remember him.
