“ Thanks , Kay for sharing the pj story. I too love new pj's and lounging around. One of my favorite stories she told of her childhood was skipping school in high school and having a wreck with the school bus on the way home. So she was caught. She was not always as straight arrow as she appeared. I always enjoyed our back to school shopping trip and going out to lunch at a new place. Good times are what I am thinking about now. Diane

“ I will always cherish my memories of Da and I from when I was growing up. I remember when I would spend the night and we always had a nice time. I'd get to watch movies and play with my cars. Oh and watch a ton of Law and Order since we both really liked it. :) I enjoyed going with her to Sherman to stay with her sister in law, Charlene. You were a strong woman which you passed onto your daughters. You were a loving grandmother. I will miss you and hope you have found peace and happiness. "Rest your eyes" now Da. I love you.

“ One of the things I always loved about my mother was how we could stay in our pjs all day and just watch tv and do nothing. She loved pjs and passed that to all my sisters too nothing better to us than a new pair of pjs and getting comfy on the couch. I know she is at peace and has a brand new pair of pjs.

Love you and will miss you
