

Maureen Uzoamaka Obieri

September 12, 1975 - February 15, 2011

Maureen Uzoamaka Obieri of Garland, Texas was born September 12, 1975 in Benin, Nigeria. She passed away February 15, 2011 in Lewisville, Texas. She is survived by parents Raymond Chukwugozie Obieri and Bethy Omo Obieri; brother Ebuka Obieri; sisters Nkechi, Ogechi, Ifeyinwa, and Uchechukwu Obieri.

Tribute Wall

“ Amy, You were very meek and kind to everyone that came your way. You showed love to us in diverse ways. You were very reassuring that all will be well. Thank you for accommodating us during my first trip to the USA! You were a perfect hostess. May our good Lord grant you eternal rest in His bosom. We love you but God loves you more. Adieu my late sister in-law. Kingsley##imported-begin##Kingsley C. Iheanacho##imported-end##

August 23, 2012 at 07:34 AM

“ Amaka....my very first ...I miss you every minute, every day! But I ask for Gods grace to carry on. Rest in the bossom of our Lord...no more pain. Your mummy.##imported-begin##BethyObieri##imported-end##

July 16, 2012 at 02:02 PM

“ Heartfelt condolences go out to Amaka's family. We studied together in QCY and I vividly recall the time when Amaka was ill. I never knew what had caused her illness but prayed for a qucik recovery. I was glad when she returned. It is truly sad to learn of her demise.##imported-begin##Barbara##imported-end##

May 06, 2012 at 10:00 AM

“ my belove cousin,may your soul rest in perfect peace..##imported-begin##OVIE EFE ORURU##imported-end##

April 23, 2012 at 06:08 PM

“ Very Sad... last time I saw you was in primary school...May your soul rest in perfect peace. Amen##imported-begin##Patricia Ukaenwe##imported-end##

November 14, 2011 at 10:15 AM

“ My prayer is for your parents; they will never bury another of their children again in Jesus' name. Your siblings are satisfied with long life. I can see you in your convent uniform always neat, your soaks always folded. Such a lady. See you in heaven, enjoy the presence of God.##imported-begin##Sola Tairu##imported-end##

July 22, 2011 at 03:22 PM

“ Wow! I hoped it was not true when I heard the news and then I found this page! We have not spoken in a while but I remember you from QC! I remember the smile and the warmth! Rest in peace and may God give your family the grace to bear this irreparable loss.##imported-begin##Atilola Williams (Asalu)##imported-end##

April 19, 2011 at 07:17 AM

“ Wow! I hoped it was not real when I heard the news and then I found this page! We have not spoken in a while but I remember you from QC! I remember the smile and the warmth! Rest in peace and may God give your family the grace to bear this irreparable loss.##imported-begin##Atilola Williams (Asalu)##imported-end##

April 19, 2011 at 07:15 AM

“ may ur lovely soul rest in peace.##imported-begin##phyllis okechukwu##imported-end##

April 12, 2011 at 10:41 AM

“ Many years ago Amaka and I were in our 'Maryland Convent Private School' playground and our conversation was about our fathers. The consensus was “our fathers were soooo black”!

Amaka: "do you know may dad is very black?"

Chinwe: "oh no, my own dad is very very black!!!"

Amaka: “my dad is so black you can only see his eyes, teeth and pink lips.”

Chinwe “ha, wait till you see my own dad!”

This was a very innocent conversation between 9 or 10-year-olds. Amaka was the daughter of a teacher in our school but very friendly with everyone. What a loss...I thank God for the little time we spent talking and playing together.##imported-begin##Chinwe Okorie Egonu##imported-end##

March 29, 2011 at 12:00 AM

“ Amaka, may your gentle soul rest in the Lord! We went to grade school (MCPS) together and you were such an intelligent, creative and humble girl. You always had a smile on your face and made my day with your writing...I will never forget the little story you wrote "Mr. Goody and Mr. Foody", and shared with me when we met again while taking one of the pre-high school exams. Take care and see you someday!!!##imported-begin##Chinwe Okorie Egonu##imported-end##

March 28, 2011 at 03:43 PM

“ Raymond and Betty and the family please accept my deepest sympathy,god is in control,may her gentle soul rest in perfect peace with the lord.##imported-begin##phyllis.m.okechukwu.##imported-end##

March 26, 2011 at 01:21 PM

“ maureen was a lovely student in Queens College Yaba Lagos,Nigeria,i was the chief nursing officer at that time working at Queens very good in fact a super student very popular when illness struck,we were all so sad,the parents did everything possible to give her the best treatment,the school sent me on a visit to her home to see how she was doing all i got was she is getting better ,then she came back and finished at Queens,went to the united states of america to further her studies.
she was so sweet when ever she saw me would greet with a lovely smile and say hello ma how are u,well all i can say that god knows best when and why things like this happen ,i send the parents Raymond and Betty my deepest sympathy,please take heart god is in control.phyllis Okechukwu.##imported-begin##Mrs Phyllis.M.Okechukwu.##imported-end##

March 26, 2011 at 12:00 AM

“ Amaka:
You left us when we thought that you had overcome health challenges. Sweet girl, rest in perfect peace. We have no questions, we have no answers because God knows best!
Raymond /Betty;
Please take heart, and as you mourn, cherish Amaka's memory with love and gratitude to God for the time she spent with you. PLEASE ENSURE THAT YOU VISIT HER GRAVE SITE AS OFTEN AS YOU CAN TO BOND WITH HER AND KEEP HER MEMORY ALIVE!!!
May god bless you all!
Amen!##imported-begin##Gladys Ajaelo and family##imported-end##

March 20, 2011 at 04:11 PM

“ Rest in Peace Amaka...

May our Lord and Saviour comfort your family and those you've left behind.##imported-begin##Solape Peters##imported-end##

March 19, 2011 at 06:15 PM

“ I remember you as a little girl in Maryland Convent Primary School. Now you rest with the Lord. RIP.##imported-begin##Nkechi (Obiamiwe) Juwah##imported-end##

March 17, 2011 at 03:28 PM

“ *Gone too soon.
Knowing you will always be in our hearts.
RIP.##imported-begin##NZUBE OBIREKE nee ATUEYI##imported-end##*

March 16, 2011 at 01:59 PM

“ *Amaka dearest,

You, your exquisite manners and your infectious smile are dearly missed. May you rest in peace in the bosom of our Creator-Amen.*

Uncle Joe & Auntie Chinwe Madu##imported-begin##Sir & Lady Joe Madu##imported-end##

March 10, 2011 at 07:23 PM

“ Dearest Amaka,

I learnt only yesterday (7/3/2011) about your passing, in a friend's house and I was shocked beyond words! Only early this year, I visited the lovely orphanage run by your sweet mum and spent time speaking with her and reminiscing about you and the QC days. Her warmth to me just knowing about my connection through QC to you was so inspiring! I remember you from the day you set foot into our dorm (Emotan 6) with Bose Olopade. I admired your calm and quiet charm for one who was a class/year below me. You had this maturity that belied your years! I remember your health challenges in QC and how we were glad you returned after overcoming them! I am so sad!!! What can I say? Our only consolation is that you are now resting and are at peace! Adieu and continue resting in the Lord's bosom! May God console your parents and siblings and may the memories of times shared with you comfort them, in Jesu Name, Amen!##imported-begin##Florence Okoli (nee Duru)##imported-end##

March 08, 2011 at 04:51 AM

“ Wow!!!! I'm short of words at the news of your passing and it comes to me as a huge shock especially for someone so young. I remember your beautiful eyes, lovely smile and warm spirit. I can only ask that the good Lord comfort your family and friends. Amaka you are surely missed.....may your beautiful soul rest in the bossom of the Lord.Amen!!!##imported-begin##Judith Adikwu##imported-end##

March 07, 2011 at 03:01 PM

“ May peace be all yours as you rest with the Lord.

Ugo Oleru

USA##imported-begin##Ugo Oleru##imported-end##

March 06, 2011 at 02:33 AM

“ Amaka, I was speechless when I heard about your death. The question I asked was, why? why? why? and why did you die at such a young age?

You've positively touched many lives before you died. May God reward you and protect you forever.

My heart goes to your family and friends as they mourn for the big loss, big loss in deed!

Yours truly,

Eric##imported-begin##Eric Umeh##imported-end##

March 05, 2011 at 05:29 PM

“ Eternal rest grant unto her O Lord and let your perpetual light shine upon her. Rest in peace Amaka, you are not dead, drift, glide and find your path to the bossom of your creator##imported-begin##Bode Oresanwo##imported-end##

March 04, 2011 at 12:36 PM

“ Words truly fail at this time. It's so amazing I was look at a few pictures the other day that we were both in at a friend's wedding in London and I was wondering where you were now. May your soul rest in peace. I pray for the Grace of the Lord to rest over your loved ones at this time.##imported-begin##Adenyke Israel-Bolarinwa nee Alakiu##imported-end##

March 04, 2011 at 09:53 AM

“ She was calm, cool, intelligent, beautiful, neat, responsible, patient, caring.....You combined all these perfectly into your gentle and charming self.I can still picture you clearly in your beige-coloured school uniform, you went back home just as neat as you came to school, this was a rare phenomom especially with the likes of "us".You were the row leader and a unique one too, I looked forward to sitting by you becasue you were just such a wonderful and interesting person.

You were somewhat more matured than we your peers, born with a silver spoon but it never went to your head. Even as kids, there was every reason to admire you and still as much or even much more to respect you at the same time. I remember once you cried, you got so many co-pupils crying too,you were loved by all, admired by all and respected by all.I can go on and on, but I guess that's just how life is." his thoughts not our thoughts.....May God keep your soul, may you find your path and may the Lord give everyone left behind the fortitude to bear the loss.

Rest in perfect peace...peaceful one.##imported-begin##'Bode Oresanwo##imported-end##

March 04, 2011 at 12:00 AM

“ So sad to hear my lovely classmate passed away. I remember the good times in school and you making the the class proud with your beauty and brilliance. Amaka rest in peace, you will never be forgotten##imported-begin##Bevughe Doghudje##imported-end##

March 03, 2011 at 05:52 PM

“ I am shocked beyond words to comprehend this, I can't believe one of our very own has left this world, to the great beyond. May your soul rest in peace. Amen##imported-begin##Folake Oyawale (Sofola)##imported-end##

March 03, 2011 at 03:09 PM

“ I will always remember you as the sweet quiet responsible girl who didn't let becoming Ms Scruples get to her head. Adieu##imported-begin##adefunke ajala##imported-end##

March 03, 2011 at 01:59 PM

“ Amaka, its so sad to hear of your demise. Just as we are making plans to have a 25 year anniversary of leaving Maryland Convent, we hear of your sudden death. As human, we can only pray that God in his infinite mercy grant you eternal rest and give your family thefortitude to bear this irreplaceable loss. (Amin)
You will surely be missed.##imported-begin##Wasiu Popoola##imported-end##

March 03, 2011 at 12:33 PM

“ Memories as kids - they say - remains ever. Its been 24 years since we left Maryland convent for further life's challenges. In the the only few lines you inboxed me on the 04.12.2007 & 06.12.2007 you adviced me to stay strong. This were your last words to me.... I'll hold it to its highest esteem. We all will miss your meekness & calm indeed - deeply. God bless your soul and the family you leave behind. May the divine Light of God our creator continue to guide your path.##imported-begin##Chiedozie Dike##imported-end##

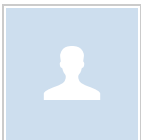

March 03, 2011 at 12:28 PM

“ Death leaves a heartache no one can heal,
Love leaves a memory no one can steal.
Those we love remain with us
For love itself lives on,
And cherished memories never fade
...Because a loved one's gone.
Those we love can never be
More than a thought apart,
For as long as there is memory,
They'll live on in MY heart.

Maureen Uzoamaka Obieri
September 12, 1975 - February 15, 201##imported-begin##onyemah douglas##imported-end##

March 03, 2011 at 10:56 AM

“ Not very good news hearing about your passing, but it is comforting to know that you have transited to a better life. My heart goes out to the Obieri family.##imported-begin##Uzoma Nwogu##imported-end##

March 03, 2011 at 08:55 AM

“ Amaka,
What can I say, how sad? We went to the same high school and we talked every now and then because you were friends with my best friends (ada/UK). You were so sweet, so beautiful and calm. I know God loves you most and only him knows why you had to leave so soon. Where ever you maybe I know God is watching over you and everyone you leave behind. I actually so so sad, despite not seeing you in over 15 years. Take care darling, God bless##imported-begin##Gbemisola Ope-Adenekan##imported-end##

March 03, 2011 at 04:19 AM

“ It is nearly 26years since i lost my mum,Mrs Beatrice Onyemah,i remember coming to school the last week of November 1985 after my mum's burial,as i got to class feeling so sad and empty,i sat on my seat,then you were the assistant class prefect.You came and sat next to me,looking straight at me,You told me not to worry that all will be fine.We were so young and innocent,but then i knew that though the words we not lengthy,they were sincere and encouraging.its so sad that i never had the opportunity to say thank you then,cause i was too young to understand.till we meet to part no more.rest in peace##imported-begin##onyemah douglas##imported-end##

March 03, 2011 at 12:00 AM

“ Wow! What a loss! I have not seen or heard from you in over 20 years but I still vividly remember your sweet and gentle personality and your excellent creativity. I can only imagine what your family and friends are going through now. I pray that the God of all comfort will be their strength at this time of separation from you.##imported-begin##Itohan Omoruyi Olumurewa##imported-end##

March 02, 2011 at 06:58 AM

“ May your gentle soul rest in perfect peace and may God grant the Obieri family the fortitude to bear the loss.##imported-begin##Brenda Nwagwu##imported-end##

March 02, 2011 at 01:37 AM

“ card8\fh##imported-begin####imported-end##

March 01, 2011 at 09:09 AM

“ If tears could build a stairway,
And memories a lane,
I'd walk right up to Heaven
And bring you home again. You will always remain in my thoughts and prayer. You will greatly missed.##imported-begin##Adaeze
Okechukwu Onuekwusi##imported-end##

March 01, 2011 at 09:03 AM

“ Although no words can really help to ease the loss you bear, just know that you are very close in every thought and prayer.##imported-begin##Samuel Adeyemi##imported-end##

March 01, 2011 at 04:11 AM

“ We're going to miss you very much!!!##imported-begin##Khesey Pich##imported-end##

February 25, 2011 at 10:46 AM