Sue White Jennings was born in Davis, Oklahoma on February 13, 1932 and departed this life and entered heaven on March 2, 2020. She was preceded in death by her husband of 68 years, Richard “Dick” Jennings. Also preceding her were parents Clint and Pearl Ingram White, brothers, Lee White and Jerry White, and sister, Clinta McCoy. She is survived by son, Kent, and his wife, Karen, as well as granddaughter, Brooke Marston and husband Brian and granddaughter, Ebby Isbill and husband Brent. Her seven great grandchildren are Micah Marston, Matt Marston, Mia Marston, Mae Marston, Eli Isbill, McKenzie Isbill, and Isaiah Isbill. She is also survived by a host of other family members and friends.

Sue Jennings loved teaching God’s Word. She faithfully taught the Bible for her entire adult life until stepping away from that privilege due to health reasons in 2017. Sue Jennings was a devoted wife and mother. After serving as a homemaker and Baptist women’s volunteer at First Baptist Church Lancaster, she embarked on a career in banking in 1970, working in various roles at the Bank of Lancaster (later First Security and First City) where she ultimately served in the role of Vice President.

Sue Jennings was satisfied with the simple joys of life. She loved people and she loved her family. Reading was her avocation. Her family was her priority. Jesus Christ was her Lord. Today, she enjoys eternity with Him.

“ Kent, I miss both of your parents when I occasionally visit First Baptist Lancaster. Sheila and I always enjoyed listening to Sue teach the Sunday School lesson. And not being greeted by Dick at the front door, always gives me pause as I enter. But, like our parents, they are once again together and that is certainly a reason for happiness. And the comfort is we will see them again when our LORD takes us home. Thinking of you and Karen at this time.

“ Sue and Dick were very special friends to me, and their 68 year love fest is a tribute to their Christian faith. Sue was one of my 2 bankers during the 20 years I lived in Lancaster, and she always greeted me with that sweet smile and her graciousness. From 2006 to 2010, we taught Sunday School at First Baptist Lancaster next to one another, she the women and me the men, and we would visit and share notes on our lessons before the people came, or by phone. I will ALWAYS treasure the friendship, hugs, and her sweet smile, until I join Dick and Sue, with Jesus.
