“ Norma was like a sister, knew her for ever. Norma will be missed. My mother loved Norma, she was always there when momma needed her. Norma was a loving and caring person and loved by many. We had a lot of good times together, laughing and crying together. Never forge my friend. Love you Norma. RIP❤️

Awe thank u for ur kind words Debbie that's what I wanted her to be remembered as! She had the biggest heart full of love and laughter with some sarcasm on the side! 😊 I don't talk about about my past much, but she sacrificed a lot for us kids, she raised her own put herself through nursing school and idk how she done it but she was a strong blunt but loving independent woman and still adopted me with open arms! She gave me a wonderful life! I hope she knows just how truly wonderful she was. She taught me a lot through tough love, that u can do anything in life u set ur mind to if u know how to stand ur ground and speak ur mind when necessary cause a closed mouth never gets fed! That's where I get it from cause I soaked it all in as the same for my children. My son even shares her birthday she loved that they would celebrate together and this year he graduates with an associate's degree that I hope she's very proud of I didn't do that alone she helped me. I see a lot of her in them! It hurts but I have learned to not take things so seriously as she didn't at times, but to sit back and smile cuz she has just passed her memory on or pushed it through I should say laughing! I pray that she keeps her beautiful wings around us all cuz she surely deserves them! ❤️ again thank u!

Awe thank u aunt Charolette from the family as I know they r going through A lot. I hope u made it to the services and it was as beautiful as she was. I always considered u as an aunt. Just know you were her best friend she loved you dearly. I was just talking to her about you the last time I seen her. It was kind of silly but I cleaned out her closet and I told her that she probably still had some of y'all's yard sales stuff and here there was so much stuff I didn't know that that would be one of our last serious mother daughter alone conversations in person face to face and even though it was supposed to be an overnight thing I ended up staying a week with her and I'm so grateful that I had that opportunity I wouldn't change it for the world it was sad but it was funny as well. Wow I think she's just played a prank on me and thought it was hilarious I just got some yard sale stuff kind of funny because I'm telling you this and there was one of those spiders that we would from time to time at the apartment that she would have wanted me to get rid of! U both would have been laughing cause I guess I was getting too serious anyways I wanted to say that I thank you for helping her when I was younger you are a big support to her and I both I still have pictures of your mom and me in front of the Christmas tree that year we came over we had some good memories and I even got her sweatshirt that would make that one year at your house and she had ours still she was telling me how she set you and your husband up together I thought that was sweet anyways I could go on and on but I would love to hear from you one day you were a big part of my life as well thank you for that and cheerleading I love u I'm on here under my Facebook but if you need me to I can get you a message with my phone number
