“ I will miss Patience she was a great friend. I taught her to drive a Taxi she was so happy. I put a benifet for her when her house caught on fire. I had some bands play to raise money for her. I loved her and she will allways be in my memories R.i.P your friend Brian,

“ Patience was my best friend. She was full of life and a true friend to all who knew her. She always gave of herself when she could and always let you know you were worthy and gave many compliments and kiddos to make you feel good about yourself and feel loved. She made each person know and feel special to her. I've had so many special fun filled and emotional memories with her. Patience my sister I will always love you and can't wait to see you again. RIP

“ Known these girls their entire life, So I have a lot of memories, One of my favorite is being one of their counselors at church camp when they were young. I think I really got close to them during that week. Patience was always so sweet and she would always hug me when she saw me. We talked several times in recent years and she will always be remembered..... Hugs to you Prudence, I love you and your entire family....

“ Love you and miss you. Will never forget how much fun you made mine and Ethans wedding, you guys escaping and stealing the tray of Chicken Alfredo from the Kitchen after everyone was asleep, the giant chocolate bars (my favorite) you would get the kids every single Christmas, you walking me to the store to buy me candy, its not hard to see why you were and will always be my favorite aunt. I can still hear your laugh, and your matter of fact voice when stating things that so many just didnt quite have the balls to come out and say. One of a kind. You will be missed by SO many. I'm happy to know you are reunited with Monty, Casea's dad, your dad, Troy, and all of the others that left this earth before you. You are at ultimate peace, no worries in the world. Pain free. Kick back, relax. Look out for your daughters. I'll see you again some day.

Much love from your niece.
