

Patricia Ann "Patty K." Watts

January 16, 1949 - September 16, 2019

Patricia Ann "Patty" Kincaid Watts went home to be with the Lord at 6:45 a.m., Monday, September 16, 2019 in Arlington, Texas. Patty was born to her loving parents on January 16, 1949, in Kansas City, Missouri, but spent most of her life in Texas where the family moved when she was young child.

Patty was vibrant, fun-loving and enjoyed living life to the extremes, having wrecked her Harley Davidson trike "Blue Diamond" just months prior to her death and long after her terminal cancer diagnosis.

During earlier phases of her life, Patty worked on the I-30 Turnpike and as an award-winning apartment manager in North Texas. Patty taught herself any number of skills including television repair, cake decoration and at one time planned, supervised and helped build her Burger Barn restaurant, in Ranger, Texas. Patty also took pride in carrying on a family tradition by spending time as a professional photographer, like her sister Corky, and spending many of her later years working as a semi-truck driver like her Daddy Bill and brother Rick.

Patty found beauty and peace in the outdoors, finding great comfort and joy near water or with the wind blowing through her hair. Patty gave of herself devotedly to the Lord and her family and enjoyed bible study and researching her family genealogy to further her knowledge of both. She was also an avid baker and gardener.

She was preceded in death by her parents, Clifford Cecil "Daddy Bill" Kincaid & Evelyn Fern "Little Mama" Wood Kincaid; her brothers: Cecil Franklin "Frank" Kincaid, Melvin Duane "Mel" Kincaid, Edward Earl "Ed" Kincaid, and Richard Leroy "Rick" Kincaid; her sisters: Shirley Elaine Kincaid Elliott, Carolyn Lee "Corky" Kincaid Jones, and Jacquelyn Gail "Jackie" Kincaid Greenfield; her beloved Daughter-By-Marriage, Lisa M. Trent; her Soulmate, Vernon Leon Cooper.

Patty is survived by her husband, William Lawton "Lawton" Watts of Wilmer, Texas; her sister, Roberta Louise "Bobbie Lou" Kincaid Boruvka of Lancaster, Texas; her beloved Sister-By-Marriage, Paula Stermer Kincaid of Mustang, Oklahoma; her Daughter, Tammy & Kyle Dubberke of Arlington, Texas; her Son, Daniel Alexander "Dan" Trent of Ward, Arkansas; her grandchildren: Amanda Joyner, Michael Shedden, Jennifer Barron and Ryan Dubberke, all of Texas; Victoria Teal, Del Elane, Kathryn McCullough, Samantha Culwell and Taylor Wedge, all of Arkansas; her great-grandchildren: Gracie Lynn, Maddie Lou, Izzy, Hayden, Grayson and Gretchen, all of Arkansas, as well as a host of nieces, nephews and other family and friends across many states.

Family will receive friends from 6:00pm to 8:00pm, Friday, September 20, 2019 at Byrum Funeral Home. Funeral service will be 10:00am, Saturday, September 21, 2019 at Byrum Funeral Home Chapel with interment immediately following in Rawlins Cemetery, Lancaster.

“ Grandma you, have. Heart of Gold. I will never forget how you made me feel everytime I was around you. I' know you loved me just by the way you were when we were in the room togiether just by the way you looked or the tear that sometimes would show when your soft heart showed. The many conversations and some of the childhood memories I only remember bits and pieces of but what I do remember of those times you were in them. And that memory was epic bc of you and your love.It was just yesterday it seems that you tried to teach me how to make your homade Mac and cheese. That was a year ago, but I will never forget the love you had for me I love you too. I really wish I could have seen you one more time But your home without Pa and Dancing with Jesus, I am happy you are there but I am sad bc I'll miss you.

“ My Aunt Patty was one that always made you feel Loved, Welcomed, And everything beyond. I Loved and will miss you Dearly. I hate the word Cancer, I'm a Stage 4 colon cancer survivor. And it broke my heart ❤️ when I learned that you was diagnosed with your cancer. Hopefully one year there will be a cure for All Cancer. But fly high Aunt Patty, And know that I Love you, Until we all can be together again. Love you more than word's can say. Bye for now Aunt Patty, And just know the day will come that we will All be together together again. Love Hugs and Kisses. Tonya Kincaid Pennington ❤️💜💎💎🙏🏻💚💛
