“ You two were young but you were right. You were meant for each other and there are sixty-one years to prove it. I wish I could say something that would help.

“ To pick "a" memory of my Mama would just be too hard there are way to many. In fact can't remember any bad memories right now. Mama loved everyone she came in contact with and they loved her. When she and I were working together at nursing homes and assisted living facilities it was magical watching her. I miss you Mama and love you so much. I know you would say "Hakuna Matata to me. It was our way of telling each other we can do this for as long as I can remember. I am going to miss our daily phone calls sometimes 2 or 3 haha Think I drove her crazy sometimes calling so much. I am going to miss your nightly texts to tell me sweet dreams and that you love me.

Hakuna Matata Mama. I love you and miss you so much.

“ Even though Becca was actually my cousin, she was always more like my aunt. Always so funny and full of life. No matter what might have been going on in her life she could always find humor in it somewhere.
Cuz, give Grandma Ruby & my daddy a hug from me.

“ My favorite memory of Becca (Mom) ..she took me to the fig bush and asked me if I had ever eaten a fig right off of the tree...of course I said no I didn't like figs. well...when Mom tells you to do it you do it...I wish I had a fresh fig right now. I would eat all of it.

“ I met Becca when I was in my early twenties. Her mother and my dad married when I was very young. Never met her or knew of her until we met. She took me in with open arms and opened her heart to me. She got it! Becca and I would talk for hours on the phone. We visited a few times and then life got in the way. She had a big family and so did I. I regret not taking the time and putting off tomorrow what I should have done today. I wanted that visit one more time.

Becca was one of those people that you gravitate to. She had that special touch. I am very proud to be able to say she is my sister even though we were step. May you Rest In Peace Sweet Becca. I hope that you new in your heart that I loved you.
