“ My heart hurts for the entire Vencill family. Growing up the memories of me as a child and always going to family gatherings is what I hold on to even as an adult. I remember always running around and seeing her smile and say be careful now (with her country accent). Being at her house or Sherri's or Terri's and just having the best time with the while family. Her smile is what I will hold on to when I think if her. Rest now Becky Boo we love you and will miss you dearly-Jennifer Nicole
