“ I have many wonderful memories of my cuz Bobby. I really looked up to him when I was young since he was six years older than I. I loved hanging out in his room just listening to music, checking out his cloths, shoes, models that he had built (cars/planes/monsters). I just thought he was the coolest guy I had ever known and wanted to be just like him. He was one person that I could never say a bad word about. Rest In Peace Bobby!

“ Dear Mrs. Vineyard, Rick and Family,
I am so saddened to hear of your loss. While I did not have the privilege of knowing your son and brother, I do know Rick and Pam and love them very much. My prayers are for your hearts to be comforted through Christ and that God grant you peace within. A wise elder lady once told me that when we might be choosing flowers for our bouquets, we choose only the prettiest ones, and God does the same. When I put that thought into real life, it made my loss a little easier to bear. I hope it will do the same for you.

“ I've known Bob-a-loo practically my whole life but when we started working together in the outdoor graphics department, we changed from a team of five to a family of friends as we shared breakfast, lunch, and a lot of dinners together. Everybody knows that Bob always had a smile on and was the nicest, kindest, ready-to-lend a hand expecting nothing in return kind of person. He walked with his head high and carried joy around him always. So, I would like to give thanks to the person who instilled these good values in Bob and let you know he wore them with pride. He was truly a great man who touched many hearts. He will be greatly missed but happily remembered. ##imported-begin##Tami and Ricky Ledesma##imported-end##

“ I have not seen Bobby in a long time but this news saddens me greatly and makes me miss him. That's the kind of impact he had on the people he crossed paths with. If I thought from now until I knock on the pearly gates, I could not come up with one bad thought about him. A gentle soul with a very infectious (and sometimes, no most times, devious) smile, he was always a delight to pass the time with. I believe he thought that everybody he met was his friend and if they spent much time with him, they were. A great man that will truly be missed.###imported-begin##Bob Dupree##imported-end##
