“ Roger was the best brother anyone could have. He was always helpful. He loved working with kids in Vacation Bible School. His passion was that Trinity Cemetery be a clean, beautiful place for people come and visit the final resting place of their loved ones and friends. To quote the song: "I'll Be Seeing You in all the old, familiar places - the barn, the yard, the places we ate together...Roger, take care of my place in Heaven until I get there. I love you.
