

Romus Valton Burgin

August 13, 1922 - April 6, 2019

In lieu of flowers, Valton's family requests memorials be made to the charity of your choice.

Romus Valton Burgin of Lancaster, Texas was born August 13, 1922, in Marquez, Texas to Joseph Harmon and Beulah Mae (Perry) Burgin. He passed from this life on April 6, 2019, at the age of 96.

Valton (R.V.) was preceded in death by wife, Florence Riseley Burgin, brother, Joseph Delton (J.D.) who was killed in France during WWII, sisters Lois Williams and husband Ories, and Ila Minkler and husband Homer and brother-in-law, Felix Freeman.

He is survived by daughters Margaret Ann (Maggie) Shepherd and husband David. Vicki Lynn Burgin, Vanessa Frier and husband Walt and Terrie Lee Burgin; grandchildren Kyle Shepherd and wife Janna, Paige Salinas and husband Greg, Todd Grubbs and wife Mary Neal and Ian Grubbs and partner Kelty; great grandchildren Cody, Wyatt, Abel, Mya and Ashton; sister Imogene Freeman, brothers William Edgar Burgin and Robert (Bob) Burgin and wife Tillie; brother-in-law Les Riseley and wife Lyn. He is also survived by his many nieces, nephews as well as great nieces and nephews.

Valton graduated from Jewett High School where he was Captain of the football team and lettered all four years. He loved hunting and fishing, it was a passion of his from a young age and continued all of his life. He worked as a stationery salesman in the US Midwest after high school

He joined the USMC on November 13, 1943, and was assigned to the 9th replacement battalion and soon became a mortar man in K Company, 3rd Battalion, 5th Marines (K-3-5), 1st Marine Division and fought in the Pacific theater at Cape Gloucester, on Peleliu for 30 days and Okinawa where he was promoted to Sergeant. Valton was awarded the Bronze Star on May 2, 1945, which he received for destroying a Japanese machine gun emplacement that had his company pinned down. He was wounded on May 20, 1945, and spent 20 days in the field hospital (he was awarded the Purple Heart) before rejoining K-3-5 for the remainder of the battle. He was also going to be awarded the Silver Star by Captain Haldane (AckAck) for taking out a pill box on Peleliu, but Haldane was killed by sniper fire before he was able to submit the paperwork.

Valton left Okinawa on October 16, 1945, on the USS Lavaca which took about 3 weeks to reach the Golden Gate Bridge in San Francisco and then on to San Diego where he spent a month before being processed back to civilian life. He lived with his sister, Ila, and got a job at the Ford Plant in East Dallas where he worked until he got a job with the Post Office on May 15, 1946, making $.84 an hour. He worked his way up to supervisor and stayed there until the day he retired on August 13, 1977.

Before going to the battle of Cape Gloucester, he was assigned to training camp at Camp Balcombe near Melbourne, Australia where he met his beautiful wife, Florence, while on leave. They were married in Dallas, Texas on January 29, 1947, and had 4 beautiful daughters...Margaret Ann, Vicki Lynn, Vanessa Jo and Terrie Lee.

Valton (R.V.) is the author of the memoir Islands of the Damned and is portrayed in the HOB series "The Pacific". He enjoyed traveling in his retirement years. He had the privilege of going to Okinawa and Peleliu to help heal his heart from the war. After 2010, he also had the privilege of being a guest speaker at military balls, meetings and different events. He wanted the story of WWII Marines to be told to future generations so they would not forget.

“ I just finished listening to Islands of the Damned and am now finding out about Mr Burgin's passing. My heartfelt condolences to his family. My dad was in Vietnam; also a Marine. And now my youngest son has enlisted in the Corps and will be heading to boot camp soon. I'm a mess right now but I can say I'm thankful for R.V.'s book. It's a story that should never be forgotten nor should our boys ever be neglected. Semper Fi

“ I met Sgt Burgin A few years back after I had seen him portrayed in the mini-series “The Pacific”. He gave me an autographed copy of his book “ Islands of the Damned” that I will treasure always. He was one of the last of the war heros from the Greatest Generation. It was my pleasure to have met him.

“ Sgt. Burgin:
Thank you for the opportunity to be your escort at the Dallas Veterans Day Parades, and to participate in the events to promote your book. I will miss and cherish the memories of the lunches we shared, and the many stories of your experiences in the Pacific- both Peleliu and Okinawa. You are truly from "the Greatest Generation". Thank you for all the laughs and memories -small world that you and Marilyn's dad worked together at the Post Office.

It was my honor to be Sgt. Burgin's chauffeur In the Veterans Day Parade in 2014. It has been my privilege to get to know him and make his friendship. He was truly one of the Greatest Generation who saved the world. I was fortunate to have visited with him about two months ago. Thank you Terrie for taking the time to correspond with me over the past four plus years. My thoughts and prayers are with you and the entire family. May he rest in peace.

Sgt. Burgin came up many times in my research of the K/3/5 on Okinawa. My friend Hank Harper (Still alive and well at 93.) served in the K/3/5 with Sgt. Burgin from beginning to end of the campaign: Awacha Draw, Dakeshi, Wana, Half Moon, Shuri, etc. To me, R.V. Burgin was a real hero in all regards.
