“ S.C. Allen was my only uncle on my dads side of the family. My dad, FM Allen was his half brother. I called him uncle SC. His kids and everyone else called him PapaC. He was always good to me and was always in a good mood. He would do anything for you. He will be missed greatly.##imported-begin##Philip Allen##imported-end##

“ S.C. ALLEN was a great man.

He was our friend for forty-one years and gave us many wonderful gifts.

Frank, Linda, Lora Lee and Katie Ann Labowski.

-WELCOME GIFT: In 1970, Frank joined Fred Oakley Motors. S.C. welcomed him and soon they often lunched together. Soon we visited his home, met his family and discovered a nearby house for sale.

-HOME gift: We did not have enough for a down payment on the house. S.C. and his wife Bea, did not hesitate to loan us money to enable us to buy the nearby house and become neighbors.

-FRIENDSHIP gift: For many years our family spent a lot of time together. It was truly a blessing knowing S.C., Bea, Sandra and Donna. When our only child learned she was to become a big sister, the first thing she wanted to do was rush down to the Allen family and make the big announcement.

PATIENCE AND LOVE gift; Frank helped S. C. build a patio cover and he loved to tell that story over and over. My favorite story was the wooden fence Frank helped S.C. build. S.C. was a perfectionist in his work and Frank is a “fast” worker.

S.C. let Frank help build the fence. After Frank left, S.C. removed the fence and rebuilt it. I can think of no one that would have had the patience and love to do what he did.

-EXAMPLE gift: S.C. was such a good example in our lives. I NEVER knew him to be angry, negative and say anything rude about anyone.

-OPAL gift: Many years after we met S.C., he lost Bea. He was lonely and told us of Opal, the perfect lady he wished to marry. We were so happy for him. We did question if anyone was good enough for our friend. When we met Opal we realized what he said about her was true and we were blessed to have her as our friend. We often thanked him for this latest gift. She and S. C. for the past several years have been important in our lives. Each time we visited with them, they never failed to tell us how happy they were with their lives and with each other.##imported-begin##Frank and Linda Labowski##imported-end##
