“ Shane was a very interesting man, His favorite things to do was play practical jokes on his friends and family. He loved to work on his car (74 Nova) and his SUV (2002 Trailblazer). He loved Chevy's. He passed on his love of cars to his kids.

Something that most of his friends don't know (but his church family does know and we would tease him about it) is he hated glitter. I hope heaven doesn't have any. LOL ! Just thought I would share a few things with y'all. Thanks for all your prayers and stories and memories.
