“ Sharon, our sweet cousin, who dedicated herself to taking care of her children, and her sister, Donna's, family after she passed last year. We didn't see one another often but in our last call she filled me in on everything, she was happy and we had no idea she had cancer. She was happy just serving others without complaint. No one else can fill the void she leaves in the lives who had the blessings of being around her. What laughter she and Donna must be having as they celebrate as only sisters can. See you again someday, Sharon. Praying for your beloved...
