“ April 5th is my birthday! Which birthdays are days we use to celebrate a birth. I remember Friday April 5, 2013 was a beautiful sunny day and now my birthday is also a day to celebrate Sheila's life in heaven with my father. Sheila was only in my life a short time but impacted if for a lifetime because Katherine is the closest to a sister I will ever have in my life. Katherine and I have shared so many things that are similar, both losing our parents at an early age. Robert and Sheila are together with never ending smiles on their faces looking over all of us they loved!!!

“ When Sheila and I were girls growing up; we use to lay in bed at night talking about our future. We had it all planned out; we were going to move to Galveston when we turned 18, get a beach house together and work at the same place. We were going to get married at 25 and have our first child at 28...and of course we had to buy a house next door to each other so that our children could be best friends like we were. Sissy I will always love you and I will never forget you. Love, your sister Debbie “ Sheila was a great person and cousin. She was alot of fun to be around and will be missed. I am still in shock. She went way before her time. Bubba.

This was such a happy day for us, as well as celebrating our shared birthday most years. I am going to miss that the most having her to share that day even if i didn't see her it was a special thing for us. She was beautiful and I love her very much, she is gone too soon from our lives.

*I love my mom so much and can't believe she is already gone from my life and my children's lives. I will never forget all the birthdays we shared as well as some of the holidays especially as a child, she was always so creative and would always have great ideas for crafts and things when she visited her eldest granddaughter Peyton. All of these things and so much more I will miss terribly, but will remember always.

“ My dear daughter Sheila was a kind and loving person. We enjoyed our times together designing jewelry, making hand made paper and fresh pasta. Our vacations to the beach are among my favorite memories. I will miss her dearly. Her Mom Linda
