July 6, 1937 - August 25, 2013

Shirley Ann McCuistion Lusk of Waxahachie was born July 6, 1937 in Asher, Oklahoma to O.A. & Mattie (Baldwin) McCuistion. She passed from this life August 25, 2013 after a lengthy struggle with Alzheimer's. Shirley was preceded in death by parents; husband Walter Samuel Lusk; grandson Derek Cline; brothers Vernon McCuistion, Hart McCuistion, John McCuistion. Shirley was a strong and independent "Sooner" who came to Dallas in 1955 on a bus right after graduation. She settled in Dallas starting a career with Liberty Mutual Insurance. She loved to bowl and met Sam in a bowling league and they were married November 4, 1960. Sam and Shirley raised their family in Lancaster, TX after moving there in 1970. During this time, Shirley worked for Lancaster ISD. After the kids were mostly out of school Shirley went to work for Cedar Valley College, where she made many friends and loved helping the students in the testing center. Additionally, she achieved her dream by earning a degree in accounting from CVC. She retired from CVC in August of 2007, after 20 years of service. After retirement, she began her journey with Alzheimer's. Shirley was a faithful member of the Brown Street Church of Christ. She was formerly a member of Belt Line at Main and Northside Church of Christ in Lancaster. The family would like to thank the staff at Sterling House - Waxahachie for the care, love and support provided for Shirley. Additionally we would like to thank Jim, Megan, Patty, Ava, Christie, and the staff from Bristol Pathways Hospice of Waxahachie. “ I remember Shirley when we were kids visiting each others home. Her mom & my mom were sisters & we would go to their home & swim in the stock tank. Ugh, when I think of that now!!!! Her mom was the best cook and I so enjoyed the hustle & bustle of the big family and just being around my cousins. Shirley was always so nice to me as I was one of the younger cousins running around & they could have been oh no, here they are but no it was always a happy experience. My deepest sympathy goes out to her family as I know the old Shirley will be missed. Love you guys. Alice Denton Whatley
