“ Joyce, Beverly and all the family, I was so sorry to hear about Slade. I think I met him in the BBQ house when he was small. So sorry you have to go through this. You don't have to worry about him as God will take care of him now. That doesn't help the hurt right now, but maybe it will lessen it. You have done a good job with all the kids. “ Slade will always be in my heart as my mind's eye remembers him - the sweet, beautiful little boy, riding Poncho while his dad worked at Gemini Farm and with the awe shown in his face at the size of my dogs when he came to work with his dad at my house. He is gone way too soon.

“ I knew Slade through Steve who has been our farrier for years. Slade used to tag along with his dad when he was younger. I remember him being very energetic like most kids but he also had a very peaceful demeanor and a quick smile. He loved all the animals and he loved having something to do...he was a helper. He was a "bright light". My heart goes out to the entire family...thoughts and prayers are being sent your way. May God's peace surround you. One thing is for sure....heaven just got a little brighter....

“ I know the Russo family through Steve. He has been my horse farrier for many years, and through these years, I have come to know his children and family. On occasion, he would bring along one or two of the children when they were young. Slade, in particular, always seemed to have a special energy about him, and he would putter around the barn while Steve worked, and just like his dad, he always seemed to want to have something in his hands at all times, be it a stick, a tool, etc. On one such visit, Slade was about five at the time, and was learning to read and write his name, so I grabbed a marker from the house and helped him write his name on an old wooden stepping stool I keep in the barn. Though his name has long since faded from the old stool, the memory of his smile and happy spirit still remain.

The days months and years ahead will be hard on your family and friends but memories will make them laugh then cry at times. Remembering your smile you will always be in my heart. Beverly, I have always been so proud to call you my favorite cousin.... You have always loved your children so much and enjoyed having a large family after being an only child yourself. I am so sorry for what has happened. I know Slade is watching over you and Steve, and He would not want you to be sad for him.... Please don't let this take away your beauty and love of life! Slade is such a pretty little man, and I know he is missed so much!!!
