“ I only had an opportunity to spend one fun evening with Stacie as me Clay Youngblood and Kurt all went to the UFC fights. Clay and Kurt went inside to get seats food and drinks while Stacie and I stay in the truck finishing our makeup and talking about life and we laughed so much and had so much fun chattin like two high school girls we joked and said, "We're having more fun out here, let's stay in the truck and the boys can watch the fight!" Loll We watched the fight but laughed even more! My heart is sad and my prayers are with Stacie's entire Family and friends. May God hold you in His arms and give you strength as another of His Angels have gone to Heaven! We will laugh with you again some day sweet friend.

“ Staci was loved by all who met her and will be missed by all as well. She was definitely "My Angel" on Earth and an Angel to my Furry Babies. I will cherish her for Eternity and take comfort in the fact that I know she met her Babies at the Rainbow Bridge and they gave her the Peace she has so desperately been searching for. Staci, "Let Go and Let God" and found Peace in doing so. I love you Precious Staci and I will miss you more than you can ever Imagine. My Sincere condolences to Staci and Johnny's Family.
