“ Teresa was a loving mother. I will always remember walking into the house in Ferris and seeing her cooking in the kitchen for her family. I will remember her making jokes with me because my Spanish was bad! I will forever be grateful that she allowed her daughter Ale to watch my oldest sons for me so I could go to work and school. She was always helping anyone she could. Her potato salad was the best! I can not remember a time when she was a negative person. She always had this positive energy about her. My sincere condolences to the Aguilar Family during this difficult time.
