“ Terry was such a great lifelong friend! My mind and heart overflow with wonderful memories, especially from our younger years: Riding bikes all over Lancaster, riding horses, fishing for crawdads, swimming at the Lions Club pool, summer baseball, flying kites, playing backyard football, racing slot cars, throwing grass spears, and stuffing our mouths full of sour grape gumballs from Goggins Drive-in ... purchased with the coins from selling back empty soda pop bottles collected from a nearby creek. I'll miss you my brother in Christ, but look forward to seeing you again one day atop the streets of gold. Save me a heavenly grape gumball or two!

“ I remember so well all the softball games Jeff and I played with Terry, the many years serving with him as deacons, the parties at huge and Terry Lynn’s house and just the wonderful times of fellowship with the “two Terry’s”. He was a fun guy and a great friend but now reunited with Terry Lynn in a more beautiful place than the very nice one they shared here—Vernon, Jo Ann, and all the Scott family

“ Terry was a special caring person who loved people but most of all his family. I knew him best as Terry and Terry who loved to give you their first names and then laugh about your reaction.
