“ Terry and George were my neighbors in Lancaster in the early 90s. They were so sweet and generous and the most loving couple I have ever known. They took care of so much and never had an unkind word to say about anyone. They loved their family so much and like someone else commented, their faces lit up when one of their kids was coming over. I am so sorry for your loss, Clay. I know you appreciated and loved your parents. My thoughts are with you all during this time. Becky Ferguson

“ Clay and family, we very sorry to learn of your loss. I met your mom only once, at your dad's service, and she lit up like a little kid when I told her I was a friend of yours. She was most warm and gracious, given the circumstances, and made me feel completely at ease. She wanted to hear the complete history of how you and I had met, and how long we'd worked together and everything. She reminded me of my mom in so many ways. I have had regrets many times that we were unable to accept her repeated invitations (insistence?) to come back to the house and have a meal. I hope you find comfort in knowing that she's at peace now, and joy in the knowledge that she has been received into the glorious embrace of our Savior. May God Bless you one and all. We love you.
