“ Mom was coming to the house and of course I left work late and was rushing down the freeway to beat her there, didn't want her waiting out front. I was driving a little fast and working my way through traffic safely, when I came upon a car going 45! All that was visible of the driver was the top of her head, I knew it was a little old lady which really frustrated me since I was late. I proceed to change lanes to go around her and muttered under my breath to get off the road if you are going to drive so slow. As I pulled out to pass, I realize... it was Mom!!! I slowed and pulled back behind her to keep anyone from running over her and laughed out loud! Of course, I had to tease her when we got to the house, thank goodness it was only a few miles.##imported-begin##Kay Dillard##imported-end##

“ Tommie and Chester took us in like family when we came to Hamilton. There are no better folks. They acted younger than us - late on a Saturday after bedtime, here they would come down the road back from out listening to bluegrass music over at the Pearl Schoolhouse. They are a great blessing to us and they raised a wonderful family. We will always remember Tommie.##imported-begin##Justin and Vicki##imported-end##
