“ Park Forest seems like a million years ago, until I saw that you had just turned fifty. Way too young to leave your mortal coils, but the universe is yours, Tyra.##imported-begin##Keith Rowney##imported-end##

“ My heart is heavy as I am just finding out about the passing of Tyra. I have many fond memories of Tyra from growing up in Park Forest (choir, dance, track). We recently re-connected through FB. My prayers go out to her daughter, as well as, the rest of her family. May she Rest In Peace.##imported-begin##Marla Dillard-Lemons##imported-end##

“ I think it was early last year that I was considering making a move. (just outta boredom I think). But I had never met Tyra. We had just chatted back and forth on facebook at times and I thought she was just wonderful. After chatting a while on fb, I decided to call her up and ask her how she liked Texas. She had good things to say about it, so much so that I said I would have to come one day to visit Texas and check it out and see her and her child. "Especially since I have family there" I said. It felt good to talk to and get to know a cousin that I never met before. And she made me feel so welcome. Never got to go see her in Texas. Now I can't, but I can still remember our conversations and her sweet comments and 'likes' on fb. lol.##imported-begin##Tanya Ford Gonzalez##imported-end##

“ My prayers go out to the Zilverberg family!!!

*The sorrow of the faithful
is not that of permanent loss,
but the tender sense of sadness
that comes in saying good-bye for now
to someone we love.
May today's sorrow give way to the peace and comfort of God's love.##imported-begin##Jeanne

“ I will never forget the first time I met Ineke. (not sure of the date, but Ineke was around 8 years old I think). Tyra, as usual, was giving of herself and time to one of the various walks for the American heart association some 10 years ago, I think? She introduced me to Ineke and she immediately hugged me and called me Mr. Joel the rest of the day. Just a testament to the love Tyra showed others and no doubt passed on through Ineke. Peace to you and your family. You're in my prayers.##imported-begin##Joel Bowers##imported-end##

“ Condolences and continuous prayers to the family during this time of loss. Tyra was very generous, and tremendously kindhearted. She spoke warmly about her family; and the glee in her eyes when she spoke of Ineke was that of a proud mom. She was definitely one of a kind who will be missed.##imported-begin##Shelia Williams##imported-end##
