“ Lannette I am shocked that you are gone but I am thankful that I had a chance to meet you. I remember you would take me and Shannon to six flags and ride along with us when we were little youngsters. I remember you having swimming parties in your backyard and us waiting for you to finish cooking on the grill. I am deeply sad as I write this but I want you to know that you helped me extremely when I was going through it with my mom and I greatly appreciate this and will never forget you.. Rest in peace Lannette you will be truly missed...look after your daughter and grand daughter from up above

“ This is what you'll always have of mine you truly are my life. Everywhere I look I see hear or feel something that ties me to you. The more time goes by the more it hurts I try to be strong for Reyna so that she and I may have what you and I do but it's so difficult without you. I've never hurt so much ever, I'll always love you forever.

“ Mom you were my first true soul mate. You went to the ends of the earth for me I always knew that. I'm sorry I never got to give you all the things you deserve to show you the infinite amount of love, gratitude, and adoration I've always had for you. I don't know why you had to leave me so soon but I am grateful you will never again have to feel the pain we are enduring right now. I don't believe you're gone I'm waiting on you to call and tell me who got on your nerves today and to here your grandmotherly laugh of pride when I tell you Reyna is slapping my hand away right now so SHE can type. There's so much of you in her, thank you for all you've given so many of us that can't replace you. You will always be that beautiful long haired goddess in my eyes, although you left me here looking like grocery store lady ;) I don't know what I'll do without you but I'll always love you. Love, your lil monkey and lil morning rosebud Shannon
