“ I first met Memom in 1981 and soon came to admire and love her. Her elegance, sense of balance in caring for self and others, her sense of humor, and her practical approach to getting along with others were all qualities I tried to emulate. She will certainly be missed.

“ Aunt Virginia led my dad, Dub Stout, her brother-in-law, to follow Jesus many, many years ago. I'm so grateful to her for that! She has been a bright light and source of God's love in the world all her life. Love you Aunt Virginia! Thank you for loving God and sharing God's love in the world! - Sharon

“ May the "hearer of prayer" continue to strengthen your family during this most difficult time. The days ahead will get easier, as those close to you provide the support and encouragement you need to stay strong. Share your memories they will be a source of comfort that can help you and your family to cope and grant you peace.

“ Memom filled out a journal of memories by Thomas Kinkade for me. So I will share some of her own words with you all.

Virginia Littlejohn - One of my favorite passages of Scripture is (Psalm 121)Psalm 121) King James Version (KJV)

121 I will lift up mine eyes unto the hills, from whence cometh my help.

2 My help cometh from the Lord, which made heaven and earth.

3 He will not suffer thy foot to be moved: he that keepeth thee will not slumber.

God seems especially close when "I am weak, He is my strength in my weakness. He knows all about me, he is my help in trouble and distress."

Memom loved the Lord and she loved her sister, Margaret. Things we do together now "Margaret and I still enjoy each others company. She is and always will be my best and closest friend. We have always shared the good times and the bad. She is my rock that I may truly love and depend on."

“ I grew up with Kim and spent my days running in and out of her house. We used to go to the Town Square where MeMom worked at Merle Norman and she'd give us makeovers and give us $ for the soda fountain next door... She was a beautiful lady inside and out and I will always remember her with a smile in my heart. Sending love and prayers to Judy, Kim, Krystal and Mark...
