“ *I miss you everyday Mom.
Just remembering all the family gatherings, Birthdays, Holidays and trips we took.
Remembering your smile and the fun we had and all the laughter we shared.
Joni and I talk about you to the kids. Show them pictures and we feel you right there.
I wish I could hug you once again.*

“ I have so many things that I would like say to her. Virginia opened her home to me never batted an eye. Lived laughed and loved and did it her way on her terms no matter how we felt as her family. She will always be like a mother to me. To hear of her tragic, untimely and senseless death, was heart stopping. I know that we all knew time with her could be difficult at times, however now i only see her smile cutting one into my face. Her silly hats and godly rings and to hug & squeeze you till ya felt better. She will forever be etched in my memory. I prayed that with her recent health issues that she would lay down with mitzy and that would be forever piece for her and us. So let us all rest somewhat easy knowing that her pain is over and she is with God now.

So go rest high on that mountain ma. Your work on earth is done. Go to heaven shouting. Love for the father and the son.
