

Walter Ray Cox, Sr.

November 29, 1929 - October 22, 2010

Walter Ray Cox, Sr. of Rockwall, Texas. Born November 29, 1929 to Walter and Ola Cox in Dallas, Texas, passed from this life October 22, 2010. Retired from Dallas Fire Department. Former owner of W. R. Cox Electric. Preceded in death by sons, Walter Ray Cox, Jr. (Sonny) and Paul Cox; grandson Coyne Cox. Survived by wife Georgia Cox; sons Gary Cox & wife Debbie; James Cox & wife Julie; daughter Terrye Lybrand & husband Ken; sister Joann Vinton; 12 grandchildren; 13 great grandchildren. Walter was an active member of the Church of Christ where he served as a deacon and an elder. Walter enjoyed the outdoors, gardening, fishing, hunting, visiting with neighbors and friends, and especially passing on these interests to his adored grandchildren. Walter will be deeply missed by many and remembered as an upstanding and righteous man, a tireless worker, and a faithful and devoted husband, father, grandfather, and great grandfather. He “fought the good fight”, “chose a good name rather than riches”, and “kept the faith”. We are comforted with the assurance of his heavenly reward.

“ Walter was a warm and loving dad to his children and a humble, honest and dedicated deacon and elder. He was much more than just a dad to our friends Terrye, Gary, Sonny, Paul and James. We continue to be blessed by his example as a leader in God's family.

As I sat around his Sunday lunch table many times as a kid, I felt God's presence as we gathered together. This never ended and many are blessed by the legacy he leaves behind.

We know we will gather around a much bigger table together again. Won't that be grand!

Gary regrets he cannot attend with me in this special celebration of Walters life and family.

All of our love and prayers,

Sarah and Gary##imported-begin##Sarah Larr##imported-end##

“ I grew up with the Cox kids at Saner Ave. Walter and my Dad were good friends and brothers in Christ. Walter's infectious smile is what I see when I think of him. He always served his fellow man - as a Christian and a firefighter. My family and I are blessed for having know him. Enjoy your mansion Walter!###imported-begin##Mack Brown##imported-end##
