

Werner Lloyd Dyer

April 8, 1922 - September 29, 2020

Sunrise for Werner Lloyd Dyer was April 8, 1922 to Leonard Lloyd and Sammie Enid (Rasco) Dyer. Sunset was September 29, 2020.

Werner was both a giving and kind preacher and carpenter by trade. He was also the oldest living alumni of Arlington Baptist University where a scholarship is established in his honor. He touched everyone's life he came in contact with in some form or fashion.

He and his wife of 69 years, Frances, had no children of their own so everyone they met quickly became family. Frances preceded him in death along with his brother, Jimmy Dyer and his 2 sisters, Maydel Bethel and Laverne Dyer along with his parents.

Werner is survived by his great nephew, Raymond Shields; Great nieces, Renata Clark and Cindy Gay Jones; and a host of multiple generations of nieces, nephews and cousins.

The family will receive friends from 4:00pm to 6:00pm, Thursday, October 8, 2020 at Byrum Funeral Home Chapel.

A celebration of Werner's life will be held Friday, October 9, 2020 at 11:00 am at Byrum Funeral Home Chapel in Lancaster, Texas, followed by a private graveside service at a later date.

“ Uncle Werner you were the most amazing, sassy, Godly, fun, outgoing man. You loved everyone and everyone loved you. The last few years have been the most memorable, most amazing, you continued to teach me so much about life no to your last day, and even though you are in the wonderful heavens you are still teaching me. My world will not be the same without you, but will be so much better because of you. Thank you for loving me unconditionally. I LOVE YOU.

“ Werner was the most Godly man I think I have ever known. When I think of him not having children of his own on this earth, I know that he'll have multitudes in heaven. He loved everyone he ever met with the love of Jesus!

“ Werner and Frances were special people. We attended church with them for many years.

They both were faithful servants of the Lord.

I enjoyed his sense of humor, when he teased our children. We will forever have fond memories of both of them.

God bless you all as you walk through this difficult time.

“ The Rasco`s have a Yearly Reunion and his Mom was a Rasco and he always came and led the prayer before we ate. My husband, Bobby was his first cousin so I knew and loved him very much. He was a Godly man and i am sure he is in Paradise now.

“ Went to church with Francis and Werner for many years and attended a couple of Bible studies he did. I will always remember him picking up my five year old grandson, who wasn't a light weight and swinging him around when Werner was eighty four.
